DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of Group I in the reply filed on June 20, 2005 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that claim 1 is generic and all of claims 1-9 should be examined. This is not found persuasive because claims 6-7 and 9 appear to be drawn to a different non-elected species and could acquire separate inventive entity. In response to the applicant's argument, it appears that claim 1 is generic.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on May 24, 2004 is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3636

Claims 4-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "the attachment means of the edges " in lines 1-2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Faul (#4,036,527).

Faul shows a backrest comprising a framework, a padding, a padding cover covering a front face and sides of the backrest, and a padding screen. The backrest further has a rigid back panel shield frame with at least two lateral sides and a bottom side. The shield frame has an inner edge with at least one groove.

With claim 2, the shield frame is closed and has four sides. The groove runs continuously around the four sides and the screen is attached around its periphery in the groove and an edge of the cover is also attached around its contour in the groove.

With claim 3, the cover has edge flaps extending beyond the padding and cover the sides of the shield frame.

Art Unit: 3636

With claim 4, the screen has attachment means on the edges with elastic clips.

With claim 5, the clips are made from a profiled strip with an arrow-shaped section sewn on the edge of the cover.

With claim 8, the shield frame is made of a recycled plastic material.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Burch, Weber et al, Brambilla, Diamond, Meyers et al, Dahlbacka, and Vento are cited as showing similar types of backrest.
